

Cheap space travel using Einstein's gravity wells and Lagrange points

Written by

Saturday, 05 April 2003 10:21

This is an interesting thought-experiment on using Lagrange points and Gravity wells to get around the solar system on the cheap. Quite a long, well reasoned paper with enough math to back it up. See " <http://pr.caltech.edu/periodicals/EandS/articles/LXV4/exit.html> "