These are some of the items I plan to talk about on Red Terra's show today. I might not get around to all of them, or might add a few, so check back in a few hours for an update. Or email me if I mentioned something not listed here (or call on 02-6684-8096). I know most of the people here and can probably help make connections for people locally (Byron Shire).

Papyrus : Paper from Banana trees, using no chemicals or water

Highlights of the Bioneers Conference :

- Amory Lovins - Oil End Game - how to get off oil before it runs out, using today's technologies.
- Paul Kamets Fungi Perfecti - Mushrooms and book - "Healing the planet through gardening"
- Jane Benyus - Biomimicry (book) and Website

Social Venture Network - a network of business people who care about the environment and society, or email me about local contacts. Highlights:
