

I'm on the advisory board of Gaia University, which brings a degree level permaculture and eco-village centered education in sustainability. Their courses are delivered from affiliated training partners all over the world.

www.gaiainiversity.org